Please Review & SIGN

Please read and initial the following information required by Virginia law for all volunteers of canine rescue organizations. You must sign this before volunteering in any capacity.

You must also complete an orientation with a crew leader on the day you arrive to start volunteering at the farm before being allowed to work with the dogs or at the kennels. We look forward to working with you.

1. RELEASE

I, the undersigned volunteer or parent or guardian (if volunteer under 18) understand and agree that a possibility of injury may occur while working with animals. I, the undersigned volunteer (or parent or guardian), desiring to donate my time and talents to Bandit's Adoption and Rescue of K-9s due hereby release Bandit's Adoption and Rescue of K-9s from any loss or injury that may result from my volunteer activities. _____ (print name & date legibly)

2. POLICIES & PROCEDURES

I, the undersigned volunteer or parent or guardian (if volunteer under 18) agree to review, understand, and support all BARK policies and procedures. _____ (initial & date)

3. STATEMENT REQUIRED BY VIRGINIA LAW [Code § 3.1-796.96(2)]

A Virginia law went into effect on July 1, 2003 requiring all "home-based rescues," which would include BARK (Bandit's Adoption & Rescue of K-9s) within its definition, to obtain signed statements from anyone adopting from, volunteering with, or connected to us in any capacity that the individual "has never been convicted of animal neglect, abandonment, or cruelty."

I, the applicant on this form and undersigned volunteer or parent or guardian (if volunteer under 18), am connected with a home-based rescue as defined under Virginia law, specifically BARK (Bandit's Adoption & Rescue of K-9s), as a volunteer, fostering individual, and/or adopter. With my signature below, I attest that I have never been convicted of animal neglect, abandonment, or cruelty.
